

Gemvision

Gemex

Goldmajor

Hedva Elany

Latham & Neves

Hot Diamonds

to Birmingham to showcase its newest designs. Since its inception in 1992, GellinAbaci has made a name in the industry as the premier designer of tension jewellery in the US.

HALL 17 STAND B29

Gemex

With a tanzanite range that was hugely popular with retailers in 2007, Gemex has now expanded its tanzanite gemset range with the addition of 50 new style rings in 18ct gold set with diamonds of GVS quality and tanzanites of AAAA grade.

Gemex will also be unveiling new core styles of ruby, sapphire, emerald, aquamarine and opals, which is one of the largest collections available in the country. Loose tanzanite stones will also be available.

HALL 17 STAND F2

Gemvision

Gemvision Europe brings jewellers and technology together with Computer Aided Design (CAD) software, Computer Aided Manufacturing (CAM) systems, and other technology products for the jewellery industry.

Spring Fair will see the official worldwide launch of Matrix 6 3D jewellery design software – the most efficient, flexible and creative software tool ever developed for the jewellery industry. Successful jeweller Martin Gotrel will be at the Gemvision stand to talk about how this technology has improved his business.

HALL 17 F46

Goldmajor

Goldmajor has captured one of the key colours of the season with its delicate trio, Aqua, comprising a ring, pendant and matching earrings. Goldmajor's mosaic gobstopper-sized collection of a bracelet, pendant, earrings and matching necklace oozes elegance, warmth and femininity. The Décor collection is in marcasite, silver and turquoise and is heavily influenced by 1950's styling.

The men's Speed collection, using steel and carbon fibre, has clean lines of steel and onyx with carbon fibres encased in steel.

HALL 18 STAND B20/C19

Hedva Elany

Designer Hedva Elany will use Spring Fair to showcase her range of colour combinations for the coming season, including a range of her latest pendants and silver and gold wedding rings.

Hot Diamonds

Key collections on show at this year's Spring Fair include Glamour Puss: a collection of irresistible charms for those that appreciate life's little indulgences. Pirouette is a second collection that looks to dance as inspiration.

The Glamour Puss charms include a guilt-free cupcake, and a St Tropez clutch bag. Ideal for style sirens, divas and glamour queens, the charms are crafted from sterling silver, 18ct gold plate and feature a brilliant-cut diamond.

The Pirouette collection explores the themes of movement and motion. Central to the collection is an almond-shaped bead inset with a Pirouette twist and brilliant-cut diamond that moves and changes shape as a dancer would do.

HALL 18 STAND B0/C5

Joias

The new Spring Green collection of gemstones mixes a rich palette of greens, blues and purples.

Strong green hues are used in cocktail ring-sized gems in peridot and tourmaline. Icy blue aquamarine comes in ideal shapes and cuts in all sizes.

There is also a selection of blue Ceylon sapphires, turquoise apatite, blue spinel, emerald and tsavorite garnet. Prices are from £2 to £200 and items can be delivered the next day.

HALL 17 STAND E40/F39

Latham & Neve

Coconut shell shapes fuses the hand-finished qualities of Latham & Neve's bestselling Ripple range with the complex textures of the ever-popular Rock range to celebrate ten years of success.

Coco is made up of tiny, twinkling tin-bashed coconut shell shapes. The company has been producing contemporary British-made jewellery since 1977.

London-based design duo Anna Latham and Neve's work is currently available in selected shops & galleries in the UK or by mail order.

STAND DC48

Rock Jewellery

Are you enjoying something of a romantic renaissance and Martick Jewellery's beautifully crafted removable silver locket pendants are the perfect choice.

Delicious tactile hearts on heavy ball chain are just some of the new Thousand and One collection for Spring Fair. All the products are handmade and most are assembled in the UK. This year, the designers at Martick Jewellery are using bohemian glass in new colours, including the romantic Cherry Baby range. →

HALL 18 STAND DC12