

THEY WEAR IT WELL?

Jungle fever

JANE might be queen of the jungle, but swathed in leopard-print these Amazons are proving they are queens of the red carpet

- 1 If Cindy Crawford really wants to quash all those pregnancy rumours, maybe she shouldn't be wearing dresses that make her look like she's in her second trimester.
- 2 That secret smile of Sophie Dahl's is to acknowledge that if her wee man was with her, he could use her scarf as a parachute, tent, backpack and sleeping bag.
- 3 We're all for 'if you've got it, flaunt it', but someone needs to tell Jamie Lee Curtis there's a fine line between flaunting and flashing.
- 4 Princess Beatrice looks every inch the fashionable teenager with her smock, leggings and leopard-print tote. She just needs to keep those clothes away from her mother.

What's your favourite beauty product?
The one product that I really cannot imagine being without is Eve Lom cleanser - it is my cleanser, make-up remover, exfoliator and toner all in one. It is the perfect product when travelling as it allows me to cut down on packing.

What's your top beauty tip?
Exercise daily and drink at least two litres of water a day - it's simple but it really helps to flush toxins from the body and it is amazing how clear it leaves the skin.

Biggest beauty disaster?
I trialled a new firming body lotion one evening before dinner in Paris and ended up looking like a boiled lobster.

Would you consider having cosmetic surgery?
Personally, I wouldn't, but others should do what they want.

What's in your bathroom cabinet?
It is probably easier to ask what isn't in my bathroom cabinet. There are hidden drawers that contain my favourite make-up, samples of signature formulas that I am testing as well as the newest skincare, hair care and colour samples that we will be launching in the stores.

What are your best and worst features?
I am fortunate to have good skin, with just a tendency to dryness around the eyes and cheeks from too much flying. I do have shorter legs than I would like!

Quick wipes or three-step regime?
I follow the Eve Lom one-step regime. I've been practising it for so long that it isn't time-consuming, but it is effective.

Would you leave chi varnish or remove it?
I would remove it immediately. My presentation is so important.

Shave or wax?
Wax.

Do you prefer a real tan?
A natural tan, but only if it's from the sun and the liberal application of tanning products.

Are you brand loyal?
In my career it is impossible to be brand loyal, although I have certain favourite products that I can't live without.
